Workstations

THE PLATFORM WITH A STRONGER FOUNDATION

Abound has been delivering high performance workspaces with superior quality, smarter technology and greater flexibility. Now with the addition of an open base option, it has become even more adaptable. The open base frame brings a lighter scale aesthetic to the entire system, while also enabling easier cleaning under the panels and allowing for continuous airflow. By adapting to today's changing aesthetic and functional needs, Abound is proving that it is the system designed to grow with you.

ADDING OPTIONS. STAYING CONSISTENT.

Every Abound component is designed with simplicity and harmony in mind, allowing the entire collection to work seamlessly with other components. The open base option complements HON's Contain storage products to maximize planning options and fully support everything from personal workstations to teaming and collaborative areas.
